Benefits of Release of 2010 NY ATS

- Expands community of practice using NY ATS data to understand and address an important public health priority such as tobacco use impacting New Yorkers
- Fulfills our public health responsibility to ensure use of surveillance data
- Will enable more in depth analyses of priority tobacco use indicators and risk factors