NYS Healthy Neighborhoods Program

Benefits:

This aggregated data will be most valuable to local agencies interested in developing or refining healthy homes programs or home visiting programs that include healthy homes components. Local agencies may use information about an HNP county that is like their own county (in terms of housing and demographics) to approximate the potential scale of housing hazards present in their community and the potential for improving those hazards.