

Benefits of using the Managed Long-Term Care (MLTC) performance data

- The MLTC report provides consumers, plans, and associations with a resource for comparing quality of care and performance measures among plans in New York State
- With the addition of future reports, the data will provide the public with a way to compare quality of care and performance measures over time within a plan as well as across plans